

Post-Listening
Comprehension Questions
“Til Further Notice”
Seth Glier

All Levels

Students should be put in small groups to discuss the questions. Alternatively, students could use these questions as a journaling activity.

Discussion Questions

1. How does this song make you feel?
2. Is this song a sad song or a hopeful song? Explain your answer.
3. Why do you think the artist, Seth Glier, wrote this song?
4. Why do you think the artist played this song on the piano with no other instruments?
5. How do you think Seth Glier feels about Covid-19? Do you agree with him or not? Explain your answer.

Discussion Questions

1. Why do you think the artist, Seth Glier said he felt paralyzed? Did you feel like this during Covid-19?
2. What do you think the artist uses the phrase “keeping the wick of hope lit twice in the song?”
3. Does the artist have hope for the world? What lyrics help you answer this question?
4. The artist mentions “laughing and crying”. Do you think it’s possible to have these two emotions at once? Why or why not?
5. Why do you think the artist named the song called “Til Further Notice?”

Answer key: Answers will vary.

Students can discuss these questions online in breakout rooms. Alternatively, students could answer these questions in an online discussion board or on a platform like Padlet so they can write their ideas and respond to one another.

Post-Listening
Comprehension Questions
“TI Further Notice”
Seth Glier

Discussion Questions 1

1. How does this song make you feel?
2. Is this song a sad song or a hopeful song? Explain your answer.
3. Why do you think the artist, Seth Glier, wrote this song?
4. Why do you think the artist played this song on the piano with no other instruments?
5. How do you think Seth Glier feels about Covid-19? Do you agree with him or not? Explain your answer.

Take notes on your group’s conversation so you can later share it with your class.

Post-Listening
Comprehension Questions
“Til Further Notice”
Seth Glier

All Levels

Discussion Questions 2

1. Why do you think the artist, Seth Glier said he felt paralyzed? Did you feel like this during Covid-19?
2. What do you think the artist uses the phrase “keeping the wick of hope lit twice in the song?”
3. Does the artist have hope for the world? What lyrics help you answer this question?
4. The artist mentions “laughing and crying”. Do you think it’s possible to have these two emotions at once? Why or why not?
5. Why do you think the artist named the song called “Til Further Notice?”

Take notes on your group’s conversation so you can later share it with your class.